

2015 Internship Application

The Students with Diabetes Internship Program™ is a competitive program designed to develop and train undergraduate and graduate students living with type 1 diabetes to become leaders in the diabetes community.

 20-50 Interns will be chosen for the 2014 cycle.*

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Cell Phone: _____

School: _____

Year/Academic Standing: _____

Expected Graduation Date: _____

Major: _____

Foreign Language Skills: _____

Work or Related Experience: _____

Unique Skills: _____

Are you seeking college credit for this internship experience? Yes ___ No ___

Internship Concentration: (Rank 1-3)

Advocacy	_____
Clinical Medicine	_____
Communications / Marketing	_____
Non-Profit Management	_____
Policy	_____
Research	_____
Technology	_____

Statement of Professionals and Academic Goals: (300 words)

Statement of how diabetes has impacted you: (150 words)

Statement of why you want to intern: (150 words)

What are you questions about a career in diabetes?

Other necessary documents:

1. Letter of recommendation from your college and/or employer on letterhead.
2. Statement of support from your health professional on letterhead.
3. Proof of enrollment in college – print out from online registration system, grade statement or transcript.
4. Resume/CV
5. Join as a member on www.studentswithdiabetes.com.

*Application deadline is December 1, 2014.

Internship placements will be announced via facebook and on www.studentswithdiabetes.com.

Submit Application to:

Nicole Johnson
Students With Diabetes / USF Health
12901 Bruce B. Downs Blvd. MDC 2
Tampa, FL 33612

Students with Diabetes is a part of Bringing Science Home at the University of South Florida.